Winter Storm Warning

A Winter Storm Warning remains in effect until tomorrow afternoon. The National Weather Service is currently predicting 6-8 inches of snow in New York City and more in surrounding areas. Temperatures overnight will drop into the teens with wind chills of 0 to -5 degrees. Tomorrow's temperature will only rise to 15-20 degrees with wind chills at 0 to -5 degrees. We will see the strongest winds and heaviest snow between 10 PM tonight and 4 AM tomorrow morning. Please click here for tips on winter health and safety. OEM issued a hazardous travel advisory last night and will be issuing a cold weather advisory later today.

DSNY Snow Removal

Here's NYC Dept. of Sanitation's Winter Snow Plan for the borough of Manhattan.

At the PlowNYC Website, the public can track the progress of DSNY spreader/plow vehicles; and confirm the snow removal priority ratings for particular City streets.

Reporting Snow or Ice on City Sidewalks

After the snow stops falling, property owners must clear a path for pedestrians and remove snow from sidewalks next to bus stops and hydrants as follows:

- If snowfall ends between 7 AM and 5 PM, property owners must clear sidewalks within 4 hours.
- If snowfall ends between 5 PM and 7 AM, property owners must clear sidewalks before 11 AM.

The City may issue property owners a summons for a failure to clear the sidewalks within these time frames. You can make a complaint at any time about snow or ice on sidewalks in front of public property, such as bus stop shelters, park paths, or schools. You can also make a complaint about snow or ice on sidewalks in front of private property after property owners have had an appropriate amount of time to clear their sidewalks.

Change in agenda for CB6 Parks Committee Meeting in January

A proposal to install a tower light at Peter's Field Playground has been withdrawn, and will not be discussed at the Parks, Landmarks and Cultural Affairs Committee this month. The committee will hear updates on St. Vartan and Asser Levy parks.
