Five Senses

Mondays

4pm

Get ready for some ooey goey family fun in this new five-session workshop, offered at several library locations! A family program designed for preschool children and their caregivers, these sessions will be a hands-on exploration of the five senses hearing, touch, smell, taste and sight. For children ages 3-5 years old with a parent/caregiver.

Book Face

Wednesday, October 4

4pm

Make your own Book Face! Select a book with part of a face on its cover, then hold the book up to your face to complete the image. We'll take photos of your Book Face and use them in a future display or post them on the library's Facebook page! (To appear online, a release form must be signed by the teen and their parent/guardian.) For teens, ages 13-18.

Mandarin for Teens

Wednesday, October 18

4pm

This workshop combines Chinese language, art and cultural together. This is a perfect opportunity for teenagers to learn mandarin speaking as well as Chinese characters and reading in a very short period of time. After 10 -15 workshops, participants will be able to use mandarin in daily conversation or travel to China as well as being exposed to 5,000 years of Chinese culture, history, geography and philosophy. For ages 13 - 18 years old.

Washi Tape Magnets

Wednesday, October 25

4pm

Make your own magnets with washi tape! All supplies provided. For teens, ages 13-18
