Kips Bay Library Book Discussion

Saturday, May 19

10:30 AM

This month the group will discuss Homegoing by Yaa Gyasi. Homegoing follows the parallel paths of two sisters and their descendants through eight generations: starting in eighteenth century Ghana.

Meditation for Relaxation

Saturday, May 12

Time 12:30 PM

This session offers simple but powerful practices involving the breath, as well as a guided meditation to bring stability, balance and a deep sense of relaxation to both body and mind. No prior meditation experience needed.

Photography Class

Tuesdays

12PM

Josephine Herrick Project, in partnership with NYPL, is offering an opportunity to learn photography in an 8-week free photography program. Participants will learn from two professional photographers who lead the class each week. Explore the city and Tell Your Story. This class started on April 17 and ends on June 5.

Stay Well Exercise

Every Monday

2PM

The New York Public Library and Department for Aging are jointly sponsoring weekly "Stay well Exercise" classes for older adults.
