

Alzheimer's Disease and Related
Dementias Family Support Program

Visit Frida Kahlo at the Brooklyn Museum

For Individuals with Early Stage Dementia and their Family

Join us to explore the Frida Kahlo: Appearances Can Be Deceiving exhibit at the Brooklyn Museum during a private afternoon tour. Experience Mexican artist Kahlo's unique and recognizable style in her paintings and personal artifacts which shed light on how she crafted her personal and private identity.

Tuesday, March 26 2019 • 2:00 pm - 3:30pm

Brooklyn Museum

200 Eastern Parkway

Brooklyn, NY 11238

This free program for persons with early stage memory loss and their family caregivers is sponsored by the Alzheimer's Disease & Related Dementias Family Support Program. Space is limited and registration is required. To register, please call 646-754-2277.

NYU Langone's Alzheimer's Disease and Related Dementias Family Support Program is supported by a grant from the New York State Department of Health