1. Last Tuesday, May 3rd, Assemblymember Quart and several advocates held a rally in Albany for the passage of the Challenging Wrongful Convictions Act (A.98/S.226). This bill would permit people who were wrongfully incarcerated to have their sentences reviewed by a judge, and have resources available to legal counsel.
2. The Reform Government Surveillance coalition which represents companies like Apple, Amazon, Google, Meta, Microsoft and more endorsed the Assemblymember's legislation to ban reverse location search warrants (A84A/296A) in NY and urged the Legislature to enact it.
