Highlights

1. On April 11, 2022, DA Bragg announced the Office's plans to expand its Hate Crimes Unit to combat bias-driven crimes across the borough. The newly expanded Unit will include two Deputy Chiefs and multiple cross-designated Assistant D.A.s from each Trial Bureau who are specially trained to handle these complex investigations and prosecutions. Together, leadership will increase the Unit's proactive investigations and prosecutions, enhance its cultural and linguistic competencies, ensure internal staff and police officers receive specialized training, expand community engagement, strengthen victim services support and advocacy, and enhance partnerships with community-based organizations and other law enforcement agencies. Victims of hate crimes should call the Office's Hate Crimes Hotline at 212-335-3100 or reach out to our Community Partnerships Unit (CPU) at 212-335-9082.

2. This month, Manhattan District Attorney Alvin Bragg will be hosting a series of webinars with experts, advocates, and partner agencies to discuss various subjects at the forefront of criminal justice. The first of these conversations will focus on how the Office combats human trafficking and protects survivors. The webinar will take place next Wednesday, May 18th at 1:00pm.

3. Manhattan District Attorney, Alvin Bragg Jr., in partnership with the Oyate Group and the New York City Police Department Community Affairs Bureau will be hosting a Gun Buyback in Central Harlem at the Soul Saving Station Church located at 302 West 124th Street on Saturday, June 25th from 10:00am-4:00pm. This Gun Buyback will offer individuals the opportunity to anonymously turn in their firearms in exchange for a prepaid gift card. Individuals will receive $500 for an operable hand gun or assault rifle, $150 for a rifle or shotgun, and $50 for BB guns and imitation pistols. There is a 5-gun limit for each person.

4. Last week, Manhattan District Attorney Alvin L. Bragg, Jr., announced the sentencing of Nathaniel Glover, a/k/a "Kidd Creole," to 16 years in prison for the fatal 2017 stabbing of a stranger on East 43rd Street between Lexington and Third Avenues. "Every life we lose to violent crime ripples throughout our entire city, and we will continue to ensure everyone in our borough can live their lives with the sense of safety and security they deserve. This case makes clear that if you commit violent crime, we will hold you accountable, and I thank our team for their hard work achieving justice in this matter," said District Attorney Bragg.
