Highlights

- Congresswoman Maloney knows that abortion rights and the draft Supreme Court opinion that would overturn Roe V Wade are at the top of many people's minds. She has been fighting for these rights since before she was in office and is furious that people are again at risk and that we're having to fight these fights again.
  - The Congresswoman is working at this issue from all fronts, from fighting to get rid of the filibuster so that we can codify Roe, to trying to expand this politicized court, to working to secure access to contraception and abortion pills and expanding pro-choice majorities. And she is looking into what she can do from her position as chair of the Oversight Committee.
- In terms of the war in Ukraine, the federal government is continuing to provide aid to the people of Ukraine and are moving to put harsher sanctions on Russia that will include taking away their yachts, and planes, and apartments, and other assets and using the funds to help rebuild Ukraine.
- Congresswoman Maloney recently contracted Covid-19 – so she knows this pandemic is not over. She is working in Washington on more funding to make sure we can keep up testing, future vaccinations, and the new antivirals. And with the exhaustion on SBA COVID EIDL funds, she sent a letter yesterday asking for the program to be fully funded.
- Lat week, she had the chance to join a postal carrier on his delivery route to help deliver the mail. Just a few weeks ago, the President signed her Postal Service Reform Act, that saves the post office from financial ruin AND preserves service levels.
