Highlights

1. This year, we've been hard at work prosecuting gun crimes and hate crimes, conducting high level investigations into white collar crimes, expanding community partnerships and investments, and more to keep our city safe. Manhattan DA Alvin Bragg recently released a 2022 Year In Review, highlighting some of our office's hard work to deliver safety and fairness to all New Yorkers.

2. DA Bragg recently convened other local elected officials, colleagues, and community members to announce a new $9 million mental health initiative to immediately reach New Yorkers with deeply entrenched needs. These programs are informed by input from Manhattan community-based organizations and residents on what they have found to be the most successful strategies for creating strong, stable, and safe communities, investing at two distinct points: directly in neighborhoods and at criminal court arraignment.

3. DA Bragg announced the sentencing of Allah Ali to five years in state prison for forcibly groping a woman on an MTA bus after they both boarded at 23rd Street and Park Avenue. "Protecting New Yorkers and their right to travel freely on our subways and buses is of paramount importance to me. Allah Ali used force to terrify and sexually abuse a bus passenger and is now being held accountable," said District Attorney Bragg.
