Highlights

1. State of the People Speech and Town Hall

The Public Advocate recently held the annual State of the People conference – an opportunity to bring New Yorkers together across the city and across issue areas to discuss some of the most important things we face as a city, and how to address them in the city budget and beyond.

2. Legislative Updates

Last month, the New York City Council voted to pass the Public Advocate Williams' Worst Landlord Law to help prevent fraudulent repairs by bad landlords and increase accountability. The bill is part of the Worst Landlord Accountability Act, a two-bill package which comes out of the Public Advocate's annual Worst Landlord Watchlist. UPCOMING EVENTS:

3. March with the Office of the Public Advocate

This Pride Month, celebrate with the Office of the Public Advocate! Sign up to join our contingent for Pride parades across the boroughs. Learn more and sign up on our eventbrite page NYCPublicAdvocate.eventbrite.com (link in chat box)

4. Watch Ask the Advocate on News12
